

DOMAINE DE COURTEILLAC 2016

JEB DUNNUCK

In “Bordeaux 2016: Firing On All Cylinders,” Jeb Dunnuck writes: “While the wines have their own unique style, if pure, classic Bordeaux is your thing, 2016 will most likely check in near the top of this list.” He reviews:

DOMAINE DE COURTEILLAC Bordeaux Supérieur 2016 – 89 Points

“Incorporating lots of Merlot, the 2016 Domaine de Courteillac is a pretty, elegant 2016 that has an attractive bouquet of ripe black fruits, black olive, tobacco leaf, and earth. Brought up in one-third new French oak, this medium-bodied, silky, lightly textured effort will drink nicely for 8-10 years.”

DOMAINE DE COURTEILLAC BORDEAUX SUPÉRIEUR 2016

This has full body and plenty of supple tannins for the humble category, but there's a certain brightness that helps it carry this load rather well. Just a bit chewy at the bold finish with a hint of bell-pepper, alongside the ripe fruit. A blend of cabernet franc, merlot and cabernet sauvignon.

DOMAINE DE COURTEILLAC

Situé à Ruch, près de Castillon-La-Bataille, ces 27 hectares sont plantés à 70% de Merlot, 20% de Cabernet Sauvignon et 10% de Cabernet Franc.

COURTEILLAC SUR UN PLATEAU 2016

Drink date : 2019 – 2028

Source: End of March 2019, The Wine Advocate

Medium to deep garnet-purple colored, the 2016 Courteillac Sur Un Plateau opens with fragrant lavender and black tea scents over notions of Black Forest cake, Morello cherries and mulberries plus wafts of menthol and underbrush. Medium-bodied with understated elegance and a refreshing line, the juicy fruit is textured by soft tannins, and it finishes on a floral note.

DOMAINE DE COURTEILLAC 2016 – 89 points

The 2016 de Courteillac is a very pretty wine. Scents of tobacco, cedar, dried herbs and leather add complexity to a core of sweet red berry fruit. Aromatic, finessed and lifted, the Courteillac is an attractive wine to drink now and over the next handful of years. 2018 - 2024

1 étoile

De la finesse dans ce bouquet de fruits rouges et noirs. De la souplesse au palais, d'une rondeur aimable tant les tanins apparaissent fondus. Un bordeaux supérieur qui ne demande qu'à figurer sur une table. 2019-2020
